

Terms and Conditions Parking du Centenaire – VILLARS

1. Drivers use the Parking du CENTENAIRE at their own risk. The COMMUNE D'OLLON declines all responsibility when it comes to theft, as well as any damage caused to vehicles during the time they are parked.
2. The ticket machine at the entrance delivers a ticket that allows users to exit the parking within 15 minutes. Past that time, one must compulsorily present the ticket at the automatic payment machine.
3. The ticket received at the entrance must be kept by the driver until exiting the parking. Before regaining one's car the user MUST present the ticket at the checkout payment machine, found at the pedestrian entrance, to pay the parking fee.
4. Should the parking ticket be lost, a one-off tax will be requested to receive a ticket to exit the premises. The amount of this tax may be subject to change.
5. The tariffs are displayed on the payment machine which is at the entrance of the parking. These prices may be subject to change.
6. The automatic payment machine accepts payments by cards, banknotes or coins.
